CHAPTER V.– MISCELLANEOUS

16. Delegation of powers.

The BOI may by general or special order, delegate to the Chairman, the Secretary or any officer of the BOI, any of its powers or functions subject to such conditions as it may deem fit to impose.

17. Recruitment etc.–

(1) The BOI may appoint such officers, advisers, consultants and employees as it considers necessary for the efficient performance of its functions on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed under the rules made with the prior approval of the Federal Government:

Provided that all appointments shall be made in accordance with the prescribed educational, technical or professional qualifications and experience.

(2) The age of superannuation shall be sixty years for the employees of the BOI.

18. Members, officers, staff, etc. deemed to be public servants.

Subject to other provisions of this Ordinance, every officer and employee of the BOI shall be deemed to be a public servant within the meaning of section 21 of the Pakistan Penal Code (Act XLV of 1860).

19. Assistance from other agencies.

(1) The BOI may require any information from all sources including private sector organizations and agencies, any Ministry, Division, Department, statutory body, corporation, agency of the Federal Government or a Provincial Government which, in its opinion, concerns any matter relating to the BOI, and the requisite information shall be provided to the BOI within a fortnight of the receipt of such request.

(2) The BOI may request any Ministry, Division, Department, statutory body, corporation, agency of the Federal Government or a Provincial Government, to review such proposals, policies, directions, guidelines, notifications, circulars, orders, regulations and rules, which, in its opinion, concern any matter relating to the BOI, and the concerned Ministry, Division, Department, statutory body, corporation, agency of the Federal Government or a Provincial Government shall give its decision in writing based on sound reasons within a fortnight of such request.

(3) Subject to sub-section (4), if, upon receiving the decision under sub-section (2), the BOI is of opinion that the decision adversely affects any policy relating to its working, it may request the concerned Ministry, Division, Department, statutory body, corporation, agency of the Federal Government or a Provincial Government to review such decision in consultation with it or its authorized officer.

(4) In case the BOI is not satisfied with the revised decision of the Ministry, Division, Department, statutory body, corporation, agency of the Federal Government or a Provincial Government under sub-sections (2) and (3), the unresolved issue shall be placed before the CCOI or the BOI wherein the representative from the concerned Ministry, Division, Department, statutory body, corporation etc., would be invited by special invitation to assist the CCOI or the BOI to arrive at a final decision.

20. Indemnity.

No suit, prosecution, or other legal proceeding shall lie against the BOI, the Chairman, the Secretary, the members, the employees and consultants of the BOI for anything done in good faith or intended to be done under this Ordinance or any rule or regulation made thereunder.

21. Transfer of employees and assets.

(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law, contract or agreement or in the terms and conditions of service, every person, other than employees of other Departments and members of regularly constituted Service Groups posted on deputation or employed in the Board of Investment and serving in or under it immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance including employees of the BOI on deputation to other organizations, shall cease to be civil servants and stand transferred to and become employees of the BOI on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by rules to be made under section 23.

Provided the terms or conditions of the persons so transferred shall not be less favourable than those applicable to them before the commencement of this Ordinance

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, no person who has been transferred to the BOI under sub-section (1) shall be entitled to any compensation on account of such transfer.

(3) All funds, properties, rights and interests of whatsoever kind issued, used, enjoyed, possessed, owned or vested in the BOI, in existence before the commencement of this Ordinance, and all liabilities legally subsisting against the said Board shall vest in and become the liabilities of the BOI established under this Ordinance.

(4) All suits, other legal proceedings instituted by or against the BOI in existence immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance and all orders issued, instructions executed, measures taken, etc., in relation thereto, shall be deemed to pertain to the BOI established under this Ordinance, and may proceed and be dealt with accordingly.

(5) All debts and liabilities incurred, contracts entered into or rights acquired and all matters and all things, engaged to be done by, with or for the BOI, in existence before the commencement of this Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been incurred, entered into, acquired or engaged to be done by, with or for the BOI established under this Ordinance.

22. Committees.

To assist it in the performance of its functions, the BOI may constitute such committees consisting of such persons as it may deem fit.

23. Power to make rules.

(1) The BOI may, with the prior approval of the Federal Government, make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Ordinance and to regulate appointments and conditions of service of officers and employees in the service of the BOI; and

(2) Until the rules referred to in sub-section (1) are made, the officers and employees of the BOI shall continue to be governed, in respect of the matters terms and conditions of service by rules applicable to them immediately before the commencement of this Ordinance.

24. Power to make regulations.

The BOI may, by notification in the Official Gazette, make regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance or the rules, for carrying out the purposes under this Ordinance.

25. Removal of difficulties.

If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Ordinance, the Federal Government may, within two years of the commencement of this Ordinance, make such order, not inconsistent with the express provisions of this Ordinance, as may appear to it to be necessary or expedient for the purpose of removing such difficulty.
