12. Approval of zone applications.—(1) All zone applications shall be submitted to the BOA by the SEZ Authority of the Province in which the proposed SEZ shall be located.

(2) The BOA shall review every zone application submitted to it by the SEZ Authority to ensure that the proposal is in conformity with the provisions of this Act, any applicable regulations made under this Act and other applicable provisions of law.

13. Approval of development agreements.—(1) If a zone application is approved by the BOA, the concerned SEZ Authority shall select a developer in accordance with any applicable zone regulations except as provided in section 4. Such zone regulations shall require that envisaged development agreements be notified for competitive bidding.

(2) After negotiating a development agreement, the concerned SEZ Authority shall submit a final agreement for approval to the BOA.

(3) There shall be a provisional approval by the concerned SEZ Authority subject to fulfillment of all such conditions necessary for final approval according to laid down criteria.

(4) The BOA may condition its approval of a development agreement on the fulfillment of such conditions as it deems fit and according to the laid down criteria.

(5) After final approval, the development agreement shall be signed jointly by the Secretary of the BOA on behalf of the Federation of Pakistan and by the chief executive officer of the concerned SEZ Authority on behalf of the respective Provincial Government.

(6) If the BOA does not approve a development agreement submitted to it, the concerned SEZ Authority, that submitted the development agreement, may resubmit the development agreement after either renegotiating the terms of the proposed development agreement with the developer concerned or after reaching agreement with a different developer selected in accordance with the applicable zone regulations.

(7) In case of any grievances, a developer may approach BOA directly or through the SEZ Authority and BOA shall have the authority to consider, modify or set aside any decision.

14. Simultaneous approval of zone application and development agreement.—The SEZ Authority may simultaneously submit both a zone application and a development agreement to the BOA for provisional approval, provided that—

- (a) the developer in question either owns all immovable property in the proposed SEZ or holds leasehold rights; and
- (b) no additional incentives shall be granted by the SEZ Authority under sub-section (2) of section 34.

15. Approval of existing zones.—(1) Any existing zone may apply to the SEZ Authority in which it is located for submission of a zone application on its behalf.

(2) Subject to applicable zone regulations, the SEZ Authority may choose to submit a zone application with respect to an existing zone.

(3) The BOA may approve a zone application with respect to an existing zone on such terms and conditions as it deems appropriate, provided that all zone enterprises in existing zones before the commencement of this Act exercises the option of availing the benefits already enjoying or the benefits to be offered by this Act.

(4) The existing zones shall not avail the two benefits simultaneously.

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (3) only the new entrants and new industries that have never availed any such benefits in the past are eligible for the benefits of SEZ under this Act.

16. Zone approval criteria.—(1) The BOA shall issue general and particular zone approval criteria for SEZ compatible with Pakistan's obligations under its multilateral and bilateral trade agreements which shall cover—

- (i) customs procedures for imports into a SEZ and exports out of it; and
- (ii) Pakistani certificates of origin for exports issued by the respective Chamber of Commerce.

(2) unless otherwise decided by the BOA, the following provisions shall form part of the zone approval criteria, namely:—

- (e) zone enterprises must begin construction of facilities within six months and assume regular business operations within twenty-four months of their approval as zone enterprises and after receipt of all required licences and permits;
- (f) within six months the developer is bound to take all necessary approvals to start construction activities failing which that title will be withdrawn and agreement will be terminated and land will be returned;
- (g) title to land may be registered in the name of zone enterprises only after they have performed business operations in the SEZ concerned for at least six months;
- (h) there shall be no real estate activities in the zone as this would result in withdrawal of the title of land and termination of the agreement; and
- (i) articles of association of the zone developer shall be approved by the Provincial SEZ Authority in accordance with the regulatory framework prescribed by the BOA.

(3) In case the SEZ Authority is satisfied with the justification put forward for delay in performance of a responsibility by an enterprise in a SEZ, it may give reasonable relaxation in time frame for performance of the particular responsibility.

17. Functions and powers of SEZ Authorities.—The SEZ Authority shall be responsible to,—

- (a) prepare zone applications in accordance with this Act and applicable zone regulations;
- (b) select developers in accordance with the provisions of this Act and the applicable zone regulations;
- (c) negotiate development agreements in accordance with the provisions of this Act and applicable zone regulations;
- (d) assist developers upon award of a development in acquiring land and accessing public utilities in accordance with the zone development plan;
- (e) prepare zone regulations for particular SEZ;
- (f) co-ordinate with Federal and Provincial authorities and ensure the building of infrastructure outside the boundaries of SEZ;
- (g) serve as liaisons and facilitating agencies in accordance with the provisions of section 29;
- (h) facilitate the availability of public utilities to zone enterprises in accordance with the zone development plan;
- (i) liaise with all relevant Federal and Provincial authorities to ensure the security of SEZs;
- (j) monitor the proper implementation of streamlined administrative procedures in SEZs under section 28;
- (k) monitor the compliance of developers with zone regulations as well as the compliance of developers with their obligations under development agreements and suspend development agreements, in case of violation of terms of development agreement by the developer, pending final decision by BOA.

- (l) monitor the compliance of zone enterprises with their obligations under zone regulations;
- (m) review of the activities of the developers and zone enterprises regularly but not less than once a year; and
- (n) report bi-annually to the BOA with respect to SEZs in the Provinces concerned.

18. Suspension and removal of members of SEZ Authorities.—(1) The Chief Minister may order removal of either the Chairperson, if so appointed by him, or any member of the Provincial SEZ Authority.

(2) If either the Chairperson or any member of a Provincial SEZ Authority is removed, their replacement shall be appointed by the Chief Minister.

19. Eligibility as developer.—Unless otherwise decided by the BOA with respect to a particular SEZ or type of SEZ, any entity shall be eligible as a developer which is incorporated under the laws of Pakistan.

20. Responsibilities of developers.—(1) With the exception of existing zones which have been approved as SEZs, all SEZs shall be developed and operated by developers within a specified time period as mentioned in the development agreement.

(2) All developers shall—

- (i) implement their zone development plans in accordance with the terms of their development agreement;
- (ii) approve zone enterprises and allot land to such enterprises in accordance with the applicable zone admission criteria, zone regulations and the terms of the development agreement; and
- (iii) monitor and ensure the compliance of zone enterprises with all applicable zone regulations.

(3) Subject to default on the foregoing unless otherwise, the agreement shall stand terminated.

21. Development agreements.—(1) Each development agreement shall include—

- (a) all undertakings of the developer regarding the development and operation of the SEZ concerned, with the zone development plan or business concept of proposed SEZ model as an integral part of the development agreements; and
- (b) all authorities conferred on the developer with respect to the SEZ concerned, including specifically any provisions pertaining to the developer's authority to—
 - (i) admit enterprises into the SEZ in accordance with the zone admission criteria and allot land to them in accordance with agreed eligibility criteria and procedures;
 - (ii) act as a liaison and facilitating agency between the relevant SEZ authority and zone enterprise;
 - (iii) all financial obligations of the developer, including any obligation to make payment for the allocation of land and provision of services by public authorities; and
 - (iv) clear provisions regarding the responsibility of maintenance of infrastructure and utility services.

(2) A development agreement shall also include—

- (i) rights, protections and entitlements of the developer with respect to the SEZ concerned, established or allowed under this Act or any other applicable law;
- (ii) rights, protections and entitlements of zone enterprises in the SEZ concerned established or allowed under this Act or any other applicable law, together with a prescribed procedure for the invocation of such rights, protections and entitlements by the developers;
- (iii) provision for the settlement of disputes, including disputes on behalf of zone enterprises through arbitrations; and
- (iv) rights or titles and other legal authority of the Provincial SEZ Authorities superior to it in terms of the provisions of this Act.

22. Sanctions against developers.—(1) The SEZ Authority may, if it is satisfied after notice and a hearing that a developer is not acting in accordance with the terms of its development agreement or is acting in violation of applicable zone regulations or applicable legislation and has failed to rectify such violation despite notice to this effect, suspend the development agreement of that developer and move for cancellation of such agreement to the BOA or impose such other penalty as may be provided under the applicable zone regulations or the development agreement.

(2) Upon receipt of an application from the Provincial SEZ Authority seeking cancellation of a development agreement, the BOA shall give notice to the developer concerned, asking it to show cause why its development agreement should not be cancelled or why such lesser penalty as may be provided under applicable zone regulations should not be imposed.

(3) Pending the final decision of the BOA on a proposal for cancellation of a particular development agreement, the SEZ Authority may appoint an interim administrator or take such interim measures as it is necessary to do so—

- (a) in the public interest; or
- (b) to prevent any of the affairs of any SEZ being conducted in a manner detrimental to the interests of stakeholders, zone enterprises or other persons whose interest are likely to be affected or in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the SEZ.

(4) Pending the final decision of the BOA, on a proposal for cancellation of a particular development agreement, the SEZ Authority may, if it is satisfied that it is necessary to secure the proper management of any zone, issue directions to developers generally or to any developer in particular to carry out such changes as are necessary to rectify the situation and the developers shall be bound to comply with such directions.

(5) Following a hearing in person, in which the developer may be represented by counsel, the BOA may impose such penalty as is provided by the applicable zone regulations or the development agreement, which may include cancellation of a development agreement or cancellation of any benefits allowed to a developer, provided that any cancellation of benefits to a developer shall be without prejudice to the rights and privileges of zone enterprises.

- (6) The BOA may only cancel a development agreement if it finds that—
- (i) the developer has violated its development agreement; and
 - (ii) that the developer has failed to rectify such violation despite notice.

(7) In addition to the rights of a developer to seek relief through arbitration, a developer aggrieved by any decision of the BOA, BOI or by the imposition of sanction by the SEZ Authority or by the suspension or cancellation of its development agreement may appeal before the High Court of the relevant Province.

23. SEZ committees.—(1) The BOA shall charter an SEZ Committee for each SEZ as per the applicable zone regulations.

(2) The membership of a SEZ committee shall consist of representatives from the developer, BOI, Provincial investment promotion agency, SEZ Authority and concerned district Government. The developer shall appoint the chairperson of the committee.

(3) Each SEZ committee shall have responsibilities to administer and enforce SEZ benefits and rules as well as provide facilitation between the SEZ, its enterprises and the government with responsibilities including to—

- (a) examine and approve SEZ entry applications in accordance with zone admissions criteria;

- (e) coordinate between the developer and government entities and utility providers during construction;
- (f) assist Zone enterprises in obtaining approvals and registrations;
- (g) serve as the point of contact between the zone enterprise and utility providers; and
- (h) facilitate between enterprises and government regulators and tax authorities.

(4) SEZ Committees shall execute their responsibilities according to their standard operating procedure in accordance with zone regulations.

24. Admission of zone enterprises.—(1) Enterprise shall be admitted into a SEZ by the developer in accordance with applicable zone admission criteria, the zone regulations and the terms of the development agreement.

(2) Any enterprise which is refused admission into a SEZ by a developer may appeal to the SEZ Authority of the relevant Province, which shall have the power to direct the relevant developer to allow admission to the enterprise in question in accordance with the applicable zone regulations and development agreement.

25. Sanctions against zone enterprises.—(1) The BOA shall issue zone regulations which provide for sanctions against zone enterprises and the manner in which such sanctions may be imposed.

(2) The BOA may, with respect to particular SEZs, delegate its authority under sub-section (1) to SEZ Authorities.

(3) The SEZ Authority may if it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so to secure the proper management of any zone enterprise, issue directions to zone enterprises generally or to any zone enterprise in particular to carry out such changes as are necessary to rectify the situation and the zone enterprise shall be bound to comply with such directions.

(4) The SEZ Authority may only expel a zone enterprise from a SEZ if it finds that—

- (i) the zone enterprise is in violation of its obligations; and
- (ii) the zone enterprise has failed to rectify such violation despite notice.

(5) The SEZ Authority may appoint an interim administrator or take such interim measures for a period of not more than one month if it is satisfied that it is necessary to do so—

- (i) in the public interest; or
- (ii) to prevent any of the affairs of any SEZ being conducted in a manner, detrimental to the interests of stakeholders, developers, zone enterprises or persons whose interests are likely to be affected or in a manner prejudicial to the interests of the SEZ.

(6) The action taken by the SEZ Authority in accordance with sub-section (5) shall be referred to BOA within seven days for ratification by BOA, The BOA shall decide the matter and issue the guidelines and instructions about operations of zone enterprise within fifteen days.

26. Land regime.—(1) The Provincial Government of each Province or any concerned authority shall nominate, for each SEZ, a sub-registrar who shall be the exclusive authority with which all documents relating to that SEZ shall be liable to be registered under this Act, zone regulations and any other applicable law.

(2) Notwithstanding any other law in force, a developer may not sell, sub-lease or otherwise transfer any rights with respect to any immovable property within a SEZ except through a duly registered instrument.

27. Public utilities and transportation links.—(1) Unless provided otherwise in a particular development agreement, it shall be the responsibility of—

- (i) the Federal and Provincial Governments to ensure the provision of gas, electricity and other utilities at the designated zero point of each SEZ;
- (ii) the Federal and Provincial Governments to ensure adequate road access to the SEZ; and
- (iii) each developer to ensure, within a particular SEZ, the supply of gas and electricity to all zone enterprises as well as the availability of all other public utilities required for such areas as envisaged in the development agreement.

(2) Unless provided otherwise in a particular development agreement and notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Regulation of Generation, Transmission and Distribution of Electric Power Act, 1997 (XL of 1997), each developer shall have the right to set up a captive electric power generation plant or install a hydel power generator of sufficient size to cater to the expected demand for electricity within a particular SEZ and to sell and distribute only the excess electricity so generated within and outside that particular SEZ in accordance with the applicable regulations.

28. Applicable operating administrative procedures.—(1) The BOA, the BOI and the SEZ Authorities shall promote the adoption of simplified administrative procedures for SEZs and zone enterprises with the relevant Federal and Provincial authorities and agencies. Such procedures shall in particular facilitate the—

- (i) issuance of licences, permits and other approvals to zone enterprises required for their business activities;
- (ii) satisfaction of customs and other export or import requirements by zone enterprises;

- (iii) fulfillment of tax obligations by zone enterprises; and
- (iv) authorization of electronic communications and Modes of e-governance.

(2) Procedures under sub-section (1) shall endeavour to—

- (i) substitute notifications and registrations for licence, permit and other approval requirements; and
- (ii) authorize approvals on a no objection basis within a specified period.

29. Assistance by the BOI and SEZ Authorities.—(1) The BOI shall act as a liaison and facilitating agency between,—

- (i) all Federal Ministries, authorities and agencies; and
- (ii) SEZ Authorities, developers and zone enterprises.

(2) The BOI shall act as a one stop shop in its responsibilities under sub-section (1).

(3) The SEZ Authorities shall act as a liaison and facilitating agency between—

- (i) all departments, authorities and agencies of the relevant Province, including all local government and municipal authorities and agencies; and
- (ii) developers and zone enterprises.

(4) To the extent practicable, SEZ Authorities in the Provinces or in any other area shall seek to enter into administrative arrangements with tax, customs, labour and other authorities under which SEZ authorities may exercise certain administrative functions on behalf of such authorities, which arrangements may include a secondment of officials with decision-making power from such authorities to SEZ Authorities.

(5) All Federal and Provincial Ministries and departments, authorities and other agencies shall fully co-operate with the BOI and SEZ Authorities in facilitating the activities of developers and zone enterprises and carry out the requisite functions within the time frame stipulated under the regulatory framework prescribed by BOA for the implementation of this Act.

30. Labour laws.—All labour and employment laws of Pakistan shall be applicable to SEZ in the same manner as they are applicable to all territories within Pakistan.

31. Employment of key persons.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law, the BOA may issue special rules for the employment by zone enterprises of key managerial and technical persons who are not citizens of Pakistan, relating to the terms and conditions of their contracts as well as with respect to the issuance of visas, temporary residence permits and temporary work permits for such key persons and their dependents provided further that such rules shall only be issued after consultation with—

- (i) the Ministry of Interior;
- (ii) the Ministry of Foreign Affairs; and
- (iii) such other Ministry or Department as the BOA may direct.

32. Security.—(1) Each Province or any concerned authority shall be responsible for providing security for the protection of SEZs.

(2) Pending the creation of a special police force, each Province or any concerned authority shall designate special police units responsible for the protection of SEZs within that area.

33. Extraterritoriality of SEZs.—(1) Subject to the concurrence of the Federal Board of Revenue, every extra-territorial zone shall from the date of its approval by the BOA onwards, be deemed to be a “customs-port” under section 9 of the Customs Act, 1969 (IV of 1969), upon notification by the Federal Board of Revenue.

(2) Any transport of goods and provision of services from the customs territory of Pakistan into an extra-territorial zone shall be considered as an export from-Pakistan. Goods so transported and services so provided shall be eligible for all refunds and other advantages offered under applicable law for exports into a foreign country.

(3) Any transport of goods from an extra-territorial zone into the customs territory of Pakistan shall be considered as an export into Pakistan of the goods brought into the extra-territorial zone under sub-section (2) and used for producing the goods transported into the customs territory of Pakistan.

(4) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Act, zone enterprises in extra-territorial zones shall be eligible for—

- (i) Pakistani certificates of origin; and
- (ii) any advantages under trade or similar agreements of Pakistan on the same conditions and to the same extent as enterprises within the customs territory of Pakistan.

(5) The BOA, in agreement with the Federal Board of Revenue, shall adopt simplified procedures for the implementation of this section.

34. Incentives for SEZs.—(1) On execution of development agreements, the developer of the particular SEZ as well as all zone enterprises in that SEZ shall be entitled to benefits set out in sections 36 and 37 respectively.

(2) With the objective of promoting hi-tech industries or particular regions, the BOA may grant additional benefits to a particular category of SEZs, zone enterprise, regions or sectors provided that—

- (i) such additional benefits may only be granted if the BOA finds them to be justified on the basis of an economic impact assessment;
- (ii) such additional benefits, if granted conditionally, may be liable to be forfeited with retroactive effect if it is finally determined that a developer or zone enterprise has failed to comply with the conditions prescribed for the additional benefits in question; and
- (iii) the BOA shall make the economic impact assessment of a SEZ within five years from the date the agreement is signed and within the first year of the operation of an enterprise.

(3) Any additional benefits granted by the BOA—

- (i) shall be deemed to be included in the relevant development agreement; and
- (ii) shall become effective on such conditions as the BOA may stipulate.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit the authority of any Federal, Provincial or Local Government authority to grant such additional benefits to developers and zone enterprises as are within the scope of their respective statutory powers.

35. Protection of benefits.—(1) All incentives under this Act shall be additional to all incentives, benefits and protections which may be applicable to developers and zone enterprises under generally applicable legislation and international agreements of Pakistan.

(2) These benefits shall not be withdrawn prematurely and any change therein shall be to the advantage of the developer of the SEZ or the enterprise.

36. Benefits for developers.—Unless otherwise provided in a development agreement, developers shall be entitled to the following benefits, namely:—

- (a) one time exemption from all customs duties and taxes for all capital goods imported into Pakistan for the development, operation and Maintenance of a SEZ, entity, subject to verification and approval from the Board of Investment; and
- (b) Exemption from all taxes on income accruable in relation to the development and operation of the SEZ for a period of ten years, starting from the date of signing of the development agreement.

37. Benefits for zone enterprises.—All zone enterprises shall be entitled to the following benefits, namely:—

- (a) exemption from custom duties and taxes on imports of capital goods into the SEZ for installation therein; and
- (b) exemption from all taxes on income for a period of ten years starting from the date the developer certifies that the zone enterprise has commenced commercial operations with the relevant SEZ.

38. Jurisdiction of court.—Without prejudice to the provisions of section 39,—

- (a) the High Court of the Province in which a SEZ is located shall have exclusive original civil jurisdiction with respect to all disputes between the developer of that SEZ and any governmental authority or agency, to the extent that such dispute arises out of, or relates to, a development agreement; and
- (b) the district court of the district within whose boundaries a SEZ is located shall have exclusive original civil jurisdiction with respect to—
 - (i) all disputes between the developer of that SEZ and a zone enterprise located within that SEZ; and

- (ii) all disputes between two or more zone enterprises located within that same SEZ.

39. Alternative dispute resolution procedures.—(1) Development agreements may provide for the resolution of disputes through arbitration between developers and any Federal, Provincial or Local Governmental authority or agency arising out of, or relating to, such development agreement.

(2) Development agreements may authorize developers to pursue and defend the rights of zone enterprises within a particular special economic zone through arbitration.

(3) Zone regulations may provide for the resolution of disputes between zone enterprises in the same SEZ or between zone enterprises and developers through arbitration and mediation in accordance with procedures approved by the BOA for this purpose.

40. Rules and regulations for implementation of this Act.—The BOI, in consultation with SEZ Authorities and with approval of the BOA, may make rules and regulations as deemed necessary for implementation and to carry out purposes of this Act.

KARAMAT HUSSAIN NIAZI,
Secretary.
